

Kestrel Signposts 8

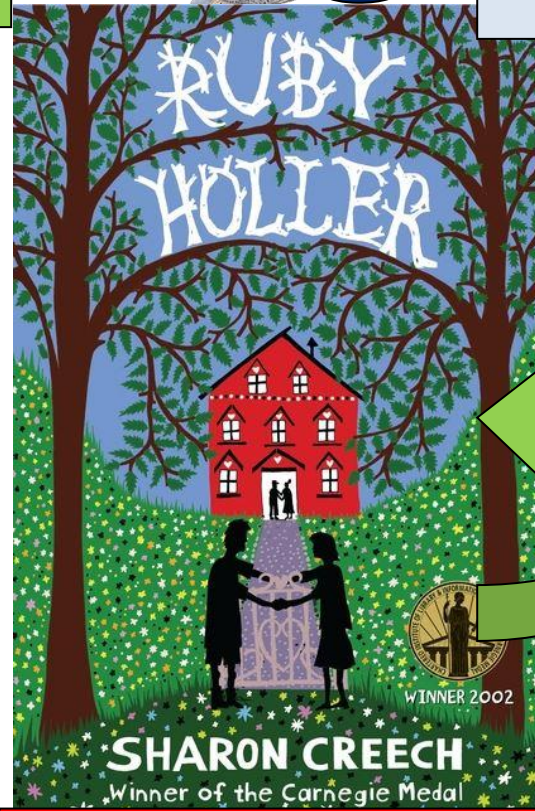

1. Don't forget to fill in this week's Friday Reading Register (you'll find it in the classroom!)

2. Next, practice this week's spellings for 20 minutes: do a practice test with someone in your family, ready for Monday!

3. 20 mins morning read! Keep a note of what you've read

Computing-

Open <https://code.org/learn> and choose one of the coding activities there. See how far you can get in 40 minutes and let me know what you did AND how far you got! Have fun!!

Practising Spanish every day will be better than once a week. Go onto Duolingo
<https://www.duolingo.com/learn>

Don't forget to tune in to Newsround at some point to catch up with today's new stories.

Maths 10 – Converting units of metric length.

For this activity, I've made a straightforward worksheet to complete. DO read the notes at the top a couple of times first, so you are really clear about the important facts!

Guided Reading

Tom's Midnight Garden.

I just happen to be really good friends with Ph.

Pearce's daughter, Sally! (Her son, Nat and my son George are best friends!) She DOES have the actual grandfather clock that strikes 13 IN HER HOUSE!!

Today I'd like you to come up with a few questions for Sally, about the book, the house that it's set in, the places in the story, the characters, about Phillippa (her mother), the ideas, how the book has affected Sally's life.....or anything else you can think of!

Try to think of questions that other people might not have thought of! (You could do this as a letter to Sally if you want!)

Grammar

You will see in the classroom that I have posted a Powerpoint presentation and a worksheet about possessive apostrophes for you to complete!

Showing Possession

Apostrophes can be used to show that something belongs to someone or something. This is called possession.

When we are talking about one thing we call this singular.

For example, a boy or a bike.

When we need to say that something belongs to something singular, we put an apostrophe and then an 's' at the end of the name that it belongs to.

Thursday music - Recorders!

Keep practising your recorder pieces every day! Send me a recording or a film of yourself playing one of them!!

Friday Free Write!

Write a letter to someone in your family that you haven't seen for a while:

- Ask how they are;
- Tell them why you're writing;
- Send them news of what we've been doing in school;
- Tell them what Home Learning has been like so far;
- Describe how other members of your family, including pets, are getting on;
- Ask them some questions, and sign off in a really cheery way!

Illustrations or pictures would be great to add to this, too!

As this is a personal task, you don't have to share it with me; just let me know WHO you wrote to (or who you emailed!), unless you WANT me to read it!

Please read at least 10 pages of your book in the morning and 10 pages in the evening.

You can email me in Chrome: ajones@meldreth.education or ajones@meldreth.cambs.sch.uk

I shall be starting a new Class Novel some time tomorrow: so look out for that on the Meldreth Website Home Learning page!